

THE GAME

Let there be no doubt. The NFL (Nicolls Football League) is back and stronger than ever. With stars like veteran Big Don passing his way into the record books, Wild Bill the sage mentor of the Young Bucks, Mad Dog Grover the rushing monster man quarterbacks fear, and new talent like Bubba Bundy the fans enthusiasm is at a fevered pitch this year.

The Young Bucks look to return all six of their starters from last year's championship team and are hoping to add some talent from the East. But the Over Forties are looking for revenge. The Michigan/Ohio State, Pitt/Penn State, USC/UCLA rivalries have nothing over this great game.

Don't forget the banquet on Friday night before the game. The game will be at Nicolls Stadium on Saturday, November 26th. Game time has tentatively been set for 11:00am but is not yet certain because of possible television coverage.

For those who are having trouble psyching up for the game this year, look for the highly motivational video cassette which will be available for viewing on Friday. It's guaranteed to get you pumped up.
