New from the Dog Pound

Dog Biscuit

Beware to the Silver Bucks quarterback!!!!!! The Grover brothers, "Mad Dog" and "Junk Yard", were recently quoted by Newsy Paper of the Struthers Gazette as saying that their battle cry this year against the Silver Bucks will be "Go For The Sack".

Our New York reporter, Dog Gone, reports that Mark "Monsterman" Hitchins is in great shape after a summer conditioning program that included mountain climbing. Also, Patty keeps him in training by letting Mark carry out the trash and carry in the firelogs each day. Reporter Dog Gone quoted Mark as saying, "Sure, carrying the trash and firelogs every day is tough. Man, I'm tired; I'll be ready for the Turkey Bowl. Look out, you Silver Bucks".

Ima Doginitt, our reporter in Western Pennsylvania, reports that Big Don Nicolls has shed a lot of weight getting ready for the 1990 Nicolls Turkey Bowl game. Nicolls said, "You know that the Silver Bucks have lost the last three bowl games. Rumors are around that we can't win the big game. Well, just let me warn those cocky Young Bucks. This is the year for the Silver Bucks. Sure, I've lost weight. We'll be lean and mean. I've read that "Junk Yard" and "Mad Dog" say that their battle cry is 'Go For The Sack'. Hah!!!!!! Just let them try to stop us."

Talk about sacrifices. . . . Our Columbus reporter, Justa Dogleg, reports that Dandy Dean Kauffman will play in the Turkey Bowl this year after missing last year's game. Dandy Dean was quoted as saying, "Hey, man, I'm in the middle. My father-in-law offers me tickets to the OSU - Michigan game. Carol and the children tell me they want to be at the big game - the Nicolls Turkey Bowl. Talk about pressure!! Decisions, decisions, and sometimes you just can't make them yourself. Yes, I'll be back in uniform and ready to play."

Just in from Fun E. Bone, our reporter in Virginia, is a report that Silver Buck's star "Crazy Legs" Lewis has a new play book for the team. In an exclusive interview "Crazy Legs" Lewis said, "Right, I've been watching a lot of college and pro games this fall while gathering plays for the Silver Bucks. I've devoted a lot of couch time to this project. You'll see some razzle dazzle along with our power plays. The Silver Bucks are ready. This is our year. Incidentally, I've told Big Don and Hammering Hank to lay off of Ruth Ann's fudge until after the game."

We just heard that a couple of Young Bucks recently saw "Big Don" Nicolls on television. When they finally realized who it was "Mad Dog" said, "Where's the beef?"

Our Toledo reporter, Just A. Barker, today interviewed "Wild" Bill Nicolls about the annual Nicolls Turkey Bowl game. "Wild" Bill had this to say, "I look forward to playing in that game. I still have vivid memories of the thrashing defeats our Young Bucks team suffered back in the 60's. It was a devastating decade!!!! Oh, how I remember. Hey, man, I lost my hair thinking about ways to win a game. Now we've got a team. Three straight wins. We're on a roll. We can't be stopped. Victory and revenge is so sweet. We should beat the Silver Bucks by three touchdowns this year. The Young Bucks own the 1990's."

Our reporter, Justa Dogleg, in Columbus reports that "Jukin Joey" Stephan, now a student at Ohio State University, says, "I hope to make the big game this year. I've seen some games here at OSU and they play some tough football; but, no one has been clobbered more than I was those last two games. I can still feel some of those hits. I hear that the Dog Brothers are already yelling 'Go For The Sack'. I sure hope our line is stronger this year. Oh, tell my mother that I'm studying hard."

Ace reporter, Hoot N. Nanny, recently interviewed Jim Ridge at his home in Poland, Ohio. Big Jim had this to say about the Turkey Bowl game, "You know I'm there, man. I've got my helicopter beanie oiled and ready to go. So, it looks funny; but, hey, man, it gives me a lift. A guy's gotta have something special when "Mad Dog", or "Junkyard" or "Monsterman" are after you. Yeh, you can say that I'm ready to fly."

Justa Dogleg reported from Columbus that one of the Turkey Bowl officials, Dave Nicolls, will miss the big game again this year. Dave had this to say, "I'm committed to the Ohio State - Michigan game here in Columbus on the same day. Sure, I'd like to be at the big game in New Castle. I really heard from my grandchildren last year. I'll be there next year. My assistant will have to watch the sidelines and present the MVP award this year. Say, I hear that "Crazy Legs" Lewis was outstanding last year."

Our reporter, Hoot N. Nanny, in Poland, Ohio talked with "Hammering Hank" Grover the other day. When asked if he had heard that the Young Bucks battle cry is "Go For The Sack", "Hammering Hank" replied, "'Go For The Sack'?????? That's a laugh. Those Young Bucks won't be able to fight their way out of a paper sack. 'Go for the sack' to them means 'hit the sack, horizontal, prone'. When the Silver Bucks get done with them, they'll wish that they had stayed in the sack."
