Edgerrin James Bundy—Poetry and Memories

JMB

*Touchdown
sweet, awesome
through two defenders, into the end zone
nice catch, fabulous throw, mad defender, happy fans
Big play*

Edgerrin James Bundy putting on his game face for Turkey Bowl XIX

- The Silver Bucks trying to use Hank as a receiver, too bad he didn't score.
- Bobby running the wrong way on the PAT conversion, he almost made it too.
- The Interception Bowl... hmmm... how many picks... oh yeah 18!!!
- Bobby's safety on Young Bucks QB Jake.
- The Who 1 shirt.
- Uncle Don's...games, pop, Bingo, Football, and Aunt Bev's good Cookin'... yummy!!!!...the food not the games or Football.
- When I think of Thanksgiving I think of ...Pilgrims, Indians, Football, and Uncle Don's!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Jonathan Speedy Bundy—Poetry and Memories

JDB

*Interception
Bittersweet is the moment
when the CB has the ball in his hands
Unexpected turnover*

- I remember playing the Turkey Bowl then watching the Buckeye game.
  - I remember running through the picture of the turkey before the game behind my brother Joel.
  - I remember the Chipmunk tour.
  - I remember when it was dinner we tried to get the dessert before the main course.
  - I remember raiding the candy jar two years ago, the next year the candy was gone!

Defender Joel Bundy—Poetry and Memories

Football

Fun and quick

On the green, lush field

Never slow, always fast and fun

4 quarters

- The Silver Bucks throw to Hank as a receiver.
- Jonathan getting crushed to the ground by Dale.
- All the delicious food...yum!

“Uncle Dave was a Chi Phi (FIE), Lindsay is a Pi Beta Phi (FIE), and Emilie is an Alpha Phi (FEE).”

Quick Kyle Kauffman was flying around the field last year like a pink flamingo

Where Credit is Due

Hank and Monica brought Aunt Betty to Oglebay for the semi-annual reunion and joined the old folks for lunch. When Uncle Don signaled for his check, the waitress said, “Oh, Mr. Grover took care of all of it.” Hank had neatly out-finessed his uncles. Uncle Dave was a master at that and Aunt Mary thinks she heard him chuckle. Thanks, Hank.

In the IT'S A SMALL WORLD department....At the October get-together at Oglebay, the brothers were telling WWII stories. Uncle Gene recalled (fondly) Colonel Dillahunt, his commanding officer when he was a medic in Japan. He was from Columbus and the name was familiar to Aunt Mary, whose sister Carolyn later confirmed that Dr. Dillahunt was family doctor to all 9 Bartons and became Carolyn's doctor when she married Tom. He also administered occasionally to Nicolls when medical help was needed during visits. He is remembered (fondly) by all.

Not for Sale

One fine day in October, Kyle vacuumed, washed, and waxed his Grandmother's 1986 Chrysler. Even cleaned the white sidewalls, which he thought might be the last set in use. (Actually, there are many in the parking lot at the Senior Center). After lunch the next day, Aunt Mary left Bob Evans and found a note with a name and phone number on her windshield: “If you ever want to sell this car, PLEASE call me FIRST.” He'll have to get in line.

Fee Fie Fo Fum

An inquiring mind (Aunt Mary's) wanted to know why the Greek letter PHI has different pronunciations. Uncle Dave was a Chi Phi (FIE), Lindsay is a Pi Beta Phi (FIE), and Emilie is an Alpha Phi (FEE). Emilie patiently explained to Aunt Mary that Fie is Fee when it follows a vowel. There will be a quiz on Frie.
